

CONFIDENTIAL

JOURNAL
OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Tuesday - 14 March 1967

25X1 1. [redacted] Delivered a blind memorandum on [redacted]

25X1

[redacted] to Jim Cline, House Immigration Subcommittee staff.

25X1 [redacted]

25X1 3. [redacted] Twelve Congressmen came to the Agency for breakfast followed by a briefing. Congressional participants were: Benjamin B. Blackburn (R., Ga.), Garry Brown (R., Mich.), George Bush (R., Texas), Edwin D. Eshleman (R., Pa.), Margaret M. Heckler (R., Mass.), Peter N. Kyros (D., Maine), Wiley Mayne (R., Iowa), Howard W. Pollock (R., Alaska), Philip E. Ruppe (R., Mich.), James V. Smith (R., Okla.), William A. Steiger (R., Wis.), and Lawrence G. Williams (R., Pa.). Agency participants were: DCI, DDCI, Colonel White, Messrs. Fitzgerald, Proctor, Duckett, Bannerman, Meyer, Kent and Warner.

The only comment heard following the briefing was from Representatives George Bush and William Steiger. Both said the briefing was terrific and their only regret was that there was not as much time as they would like to have had. Bush said he recognized the problems, but wondered if an evening session couldn't be worked out so that there would not be a conflict with congressional duties.

25X1 4. [redacted] Called Jay Sourwine and informed him that the Senate Subcommittee on Internal Security can take testimony from the [redacted] at their convenience. Sourwine said he will consult with Chairman Eastland on this. He also informed me that [redacted]

25X1

Sourwine wished to know what support, if any, the Agency can give this bill and would like our views as to whether we desire any changes from the bill as it was introduced last session. I shall be back in touch with Sourwine on this.

CONFIDENTIAL